HEADQUARTERS FLORIDA DIVISION SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

June 20, 2012

General Order # 3-2012

Gentleman

This General Order is to announce my appointment of John Adams as the Florida Division's Public Affairs Officer.

He will serve as staff advisor to the myself and the Division Executive Council on all matters concerning public information to include media and community relations. He will monitor operations to assure the consideration of public affairs implications. He will advise us on the accuracy, propriety, timing and relative importance of information for release to the Division and the public. He is to prepare or supervise preparation of information for release on Division matters through news releases, articles, photographs and multi media outlets. He will perform public affairs activities and manage marketing and advertising.

All requests for information from outside the Division concerning Division activities are to be forwarded to John for his action.

Respectfully

James S. Davis
Division Commander
